

Implementation of the concept

The user will send a request to find the closest art galleries, cultural and historical heritage and wineries in Macedonia. The GET request will be sent to the controller where it will be approved and it will send the designated template with a map that will show all the locations to the user.

The implementation of this architecture can be shown through this sequential diagram:

